GENERAL INFORMATION & RULES OF THE OIL RANCH

By entering the ranch, you are in agreement that all rules on this page must be followed, along with any additional rules posted throughout the ranch.

- Minors MUST always be accompanied by an adult and actively supervised. Children will not be allowed to participate at an activity station without an adult present.
- This is a real working ranch. Please tell us immediately if you see anything dangerous, or anything that needs immediate attention.
- Unlimited visits to any activity; however, no saving space or cutting in line.
- Please do not pick up or chase the animals.
- No smoking allowed inside the Oil Ranch.
- Food/drinks may be brought into the Ranch on the WEEKDAYS (No glass or alcohol allowed). Coolers are subject to search. ONLY bottled water is allowed to be brought in on the WEEKENDS.
- Service Dogs are allowed. Emotional Support Animals must have documentation. No pets allowed.
- Guests may eat at the YO Pavilion (in any area not reserved).
- Our First Aid Station is located at the General Store. Please notify an Oil Ranch Team Member if you're in need of medical attention.
- Drinking fountains are located by the lake restroom facility.
- Wagons (located by the front ticket house) may be used for free for 15 minutes, or can be rented for the day for $10.00. Please return wagons to the front after using.
- Any activity may be closed at any time for construction, safety, or other reasons.
- Please remember to disinfect hands after touching the animals. Sanitizer pumps are located throughout the ranch.
- Caution: We have areas throughout the ranch that may contain several allergens such as hay, milk, eggs, peanuts, wheat, etc. Please use caution if you have a medical condition that could be affected by exposure to these allergens.

If you have any questions, or need help with anything, please ask an Oil Ranch Team Member
